Convenor WG A3.28, Denis Dufournet

Dear Hiroki-san & Colleagues

Very sad news indeed, Kittipong was a member of CIGRE WG A3.28 "Switching phenomena for UHV and EHV equipment" and together with the other members of this WG we appreciated his technical contributions and also his kindness, it was pleasant to discuss with him during and outside WG meetings. He brought us good information on incidents that happened on EGAT network and measure taken to prevent them in the future. He contributed to our TB 570. He was also one of the young regular members that represented the future in CIGRE SC A3. He will be missed in our community.

Best regards

Denis

NC A3 Australia: Ankur Maheshwari

Dear Ito-san

On behalf of me and CIGRE A3 Australian community please pass on our condolences to the bereaved family. Any life cut short is sad and in this case it was cut short far too early!!

Definitely serves as a stark reminder to each one of us to value life and people around us - spread love affection - accept each other's talent and short comings and celebrate every moment as if it was the last one!!

Nothing can replace the departed... May his soul rest in peace and may his family know how much he meant too many people on this earth.

Regards

Ankur

Convenor WG A3.24 and WGA3.32: Nenad Uzelac

Dear Hiroki-san,

I am deeply saddened by the loss of our young colleague. My sincere condolences go to his family and A3 colleagues.

In the Obituary you've pointed out that he earned his PhD at the University of Aachen. If I may, I'd like to add that his work on PhD Thesis on "Calculation of Pressure rise in Electrical Installations due to Internal Arc Considering Sf6-Air mixtures and Arc Energy absorbers" has also been discussed in A3.24 Working Group on Internal Arc simulations. It's an excellent reference for the subject matter that I highly recommend.

It is heart breaking to hear that such a promising young scientist has left us.

In deep sorrow,

Nenad Uzelac
